BALLINGER AND PINCHOT CLASH

CHIEF FORESTER DEFENDS THE ROOSEVELT POLICIES.

Secretary Ballinger Says He Would Conserve the Water Power in His Own Way.

MR. TAFT WILL BE UMPIRE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Developments at Spokane in the Pin-chot-Ballinger controversy over conservation matters have made it apparent to most of the officials who are left in Washington that the question as to who is running the department of the interior is about to be settled.
Secretary R. A. Ballinger propounded the question in an offhand way in the west recently. It is believed here that there is on hand a fight to the finish between himself and Gifford Pinchot to determine the answer, and that somebody's official career will be terminated as a result of the row.

Assuming that Mr. Pinchot is after the scalp of the secretary of the interior, the only question that seems to be much in doubt is whether the former will leave the forestry service in case Mr. Ballinger's head does not fall.

Some See Ballinger's Finish.
In certain quarters the opinion was expressed that Secretary Ballinger would be unable to refute the allegations that the water-power sites of Montana practically had been turned over to a monopoly, and that he would be called upon summarily to resign by President Taft.

The conclusion of more sober minds and persons of an investigating turn, however, is that Mr. Ballinger will serve out President Taft's term as his secretary of the interior. They reason that he is a careful and conservative lawyer, and undoubtedly has taken no step without the most careful consideration of the consequences involved. From excellent authority also comes the assurance that President Taft has been behind the secretary of the interior in every one of his moves, and that it is far from the intention of the former to allow himself to be stampeded by charges against the interior department unless they are accompanied by complete substantiation.

Ballinger Will Defend Position.

Secretary Ballinger's defense of his course, which is expected in his speech at Spokane tomorrow, undoubtedly will contain the assertion that no valuable water-power site which was not in the ownership of an individual or corporation when he assumed the office of secretary of the interior has passed since into such ownership or control. He will assert that practically every water-power site of any value belonging to the government in the west now is safeguarded until congress sees fit to hold them permanently or turn them over to individuals or corporations for exploitation.

Denies Pinchot Charges.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 13.—Richard Ballinger, secretary of the interior, before leaving for Billings, Mont., where he will meet the congressional committee on irrigation said:

"I have information from Washington from the public records that not a single power site or dam site was taken by private individuals during the time that one million acres were thrown open to public entry last April." This was in answer to the charge that land had been taken by "dummies," acting for the water power "trust."

Some See Ballinger's Finish.

R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and un-icine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.
It costs but little to try Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mount-

PUNISHMENT FOR OFFICERS

BOARD OF INVESTIGATION AT MANILA REPORTS.

Resignations Demanded, Dismissal Recommended and Reduction of Rank for Another.

THEY CAUSED DAVAO MUTINY

Manila, Aug. 13.—The high ranking constabulary board which sat from July 26 to August 6, investigating the Davao mutiny, which occured June 6, submitted today a report, recommending severe punishment for four of the officers who had charge of the mutinous company.

The board examined numerous witnesses including several of the captured mutineers, and its report is approved by Brig.-Gen. Harry Band-holtz, chief of the Philippine constabulary.

The investigators demand the resignation of Capt. Platka and Lieut.
Dunsworth, on the ground that they are lacking in the proper qualifications for officers, and recommend the dismissal of Lieut. Debelaine for unjustly punishing privates before the mutiny and for abandoning his post.

The report also recommends the reduction of Lieut. Goicour to the bottom of the list of lieutenants, and his suspension for a month. Special leniency was shown in the case of Goicour on account of his youth, and the bad example set for him by his superior officers.

A portion of the second company of native constabulary stationed at Davao in the island of Mindanao, mutined on the night of June 6, and attacked and captured the company's quarters. After a three-hours' fight one American was killed and four wounded. The mutineers escaped to the mountains. Most of them were captured one month later.

WATCHDOG OF THE TREASURY QUILTS

REPRESENTATIVE MANN WILL NO LONGER OBJECT.

Illinois Congressman Placed at Head of Important Committee of House.

HAS MADE EXCELLENT RECORD

Washington, Aug. 13. (United Press)—Unless precedent is to be disregarded, there will be at least one void at the next session of the house that will be mighty hard to fill. It is the office of watchdog of legislation.

Congressman James R. Mann, of Illinois, has filled this job fearlessly, constantly and with fine discrimination, for years. The claims he has blocked and the bills of shady color that he has held up at the moment that they were about to be passed are numbered by the hundred. Mann was keen as a hawk in watching legislation and as relentless. His times of special activity were on days when members were privileged under the rules to call up bills, usually local in application, in which they were particularly interested, by unanimous consent or under suspension of the rules. On such days bills of this class are rushed through by the score.
Many are half-baked products of legislation and nearly all of them aim to take more or less of a hack at the government treasury.

On those days Mann shone, and his "Mr. Speaker, I object," struck a chill to the marrow of many a member who had wriggled to the line some bill for which he could offer no substantial defense. Usually the member attacked asked Mann to state the grounds of his objection and the inquirer always found the goods ready for delivery. Mann either gave adequate reasons offhand or he lifted the lid of his desk and produced reports bearing on the case. His resources were unlimited, and it appeared as though he had spotted every rotten apple that came to the legislative press. Members whose hopes were blasted by objections scooped at Mann and thought things, but others, who favored clean legislation, were glad to have him perform the drudgery involved in investigating the bills. The work required long hours of study, and midnight often found Mann engrossed in his task. It is common talk at the capitol that to some extent, at least, he had the co-operation of Speaker Cannon. Every speaker confides to some extent in a member on the floor upon whom he depends for the blocking of bills that cover some selfish design not appearing on the surface.

During all this time Mann has had the chairmanship of a small committee, but he has been practically a free lance. Now he has been placed by the speaker at the head of the government committee on interstate and foreign commerce and the important problems presented to him there will probably require all the time he has for study. Such has been the way with other objectors.

The house will therefore lose the greatest objector that has adorned its membership in many years. There have been plenty of cranks and dyspeptics and misanthropes who objected indiscriminately to everything open to objection under the rules, but Mann objected with discrimination.

Why the Dog Was Mad.

body kicked yer?"

Cures Baby's Summer Ills—FREE

The mother should watch her baby very carefully these hot days. If it refuses to play and to eat, if it is peevish and crying, look to the action of its bowels, for there lies the basis of health. Be careful of its diet. The food and water are germ laden. The fruit is too often over-ripe or unripe. If it has any indication of sickness, either in the form of constipation or diarrhea, give it a reliable tonic laxative like DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. This remedy is a standard in thousands of American homes for just such purposes. It is a favorite with children because its taste is pleasant, and it never gripes. It is the one remedy best suited to the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, sick headache, summer complaint, etc. It is equally as good for grown people, and we know thousands who no longer use strong salts, purgative waters, tablets, pills and such things, but take the sure, more gentle and pleasant DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. It can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1 a large bottle. The entire family can use it, and as these ailments arise suddenly the head of the house should see to it that a bottle of DR.
CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is always at hand.

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and wonder how to make a test of it before buying in the regular way of their druggist, can write to the Dr. Caldwell Medicine Co., 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., by sending name and address to the doctor. The sample will be sent to your home free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. Also, if the same (promote) difficulties that doctors and other remedies seem unable to overcome, write a letter to the Dr. Caldwell Medicine Co., 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., give your best MEDICAL ADVICE, based on a half century of experience in stomach, liver and bowel diseases, without charge. Women who have children should send for "MOTHER'S FRIEND TO MOTHERS," containing the doctor's advice on diet, hygiene, etc., in but a very important subject. Thousands

MRS. JOE MALLOURE

DIES AT 609 CAMPBELL STREET OF GENERAL DEBILITY.

Native of France and Widow of Confederate Veteran Will Be Buried at Henderson.

Mrs. Zoe Malloure, 76 years old, of 609 Campbell street, died last night at 11 o'clock of general debility. The family was at the bedside when the end came. Mrs. Mal-loure was a native of France and was born in Paris, March 23, 1833.
She came to this country at the age of two years with her parents, locating at Henderson. She lived there and later married Mr. C. D. Mal-loure, a Confederate soldier, who was first lieutenant of Company G, Tenth Kentucky cavalry. In March, 1882, they moved to Paducah.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Sallie Hannin, of this city and a son, Mr. J. C. Malloure, of Caruthersville, Mo. She is survived by two brothers, Mr. Seraph Semonin, of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. John Semonin, of Carmi, Ill., and also several grandchildren. She was a devout member of the Catholic church. The remains will be held here until word is received from relatives and will then be taken to Henderson for burial in the family graveyard.

VETERANS AT LOUISVILLE.

Two Thousand Attend Opening of Confederate Ceremonies.

Louisville, Miss., Aug. 13.—About 2,000 people attended the opening ceremonies of the Confederate reunion in Louisville. The entire program was carried through without a flaw, and the event is said to be the most successful in the history of the city.

Especially interesting were the addresses of Col. W. A. Montgomery and Mayor A. Y. Woodward. The music rendered by the Confederate choir was inspiring, and the Weir brass band contributed greatly to the pleasure of the day. At the barbecue twenty muttons and fifteen beefsteaks furnished meat for the crowd, and the citizens attending with well-filled basins provided a feast for the crowd. Rev. Richardson was master of ceremonies.

"What shall I write about?" asked the lazy reporter of the busy editor.
"Right about face," snapped the editor.

And, taking him at his word, the reporter wrote an article on the care of the complexion.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
